Cyberbulling

Cyberbulling

Cyberbulling is a form of bullying on the internet, 34% of bullying is online, in chat. Sending private photos or sending offensive messages can cause psychological damage.

Different type of cyberbulling

There are different types of cyberbullying such as:

- Flaming: sending violent messages and insults can hurt someone.
- Denigration: gossiping about someone to ruin their reputation with e-mails, messages, groups on social networks, etc.
- Substitution of person: be another person to send offensive messages
- Exclusion: exclude a person from an online group to make them to feel alone.
- cyberstalking: stalk a persons with the intention to scare them
- Doxing: public dissemination of personal and sensitive data on the internet.